Grand Knight's Report

Dear Brother Knights,

By now you should know who the new council officers are for the next fraternal year. Please help me to thank the outgoing officers and welcome the new ones.

We had a busy month of June. Our council led the rosary on every Sunday of this month before the 8:30am Mass. We took a bus trip to Houston to watch the Houston Astros play against the Toronto Blue Jays. We participated in volunteering at the Capital Food Bank as part of the Helping Hands program. We held a fallout for the flag retirement ceremony. And by the time this letter is published, we had our Corporate Communion at the 10:30am Sunday Mass.

Knight of the Month for June goes to Brother Luke Ditta. Luke is our Community Director and was the one coordinating the SVDP donation collection and pickup, and the Capital Food Bank. Family of the month goes to Ramiro and Celia Segura. They are very active especially with the Hispanic community at our church. They led the rosary on every Monday and Wednesday during the month of May. Congratulations to Luke Ditta and the Segura family!

Summer is here! I wish all of you a happy and safe summer. Enjoy the beautiful weather. Happy traveling to those of you who will be on the road.

Remember, every day is a present from God. Open it with care and love!

Fraternally,

My Van-Dinh
Grand Knight
