Grand Knight's Report

Brother Knights,

As we go through the Fraternal Year, we still have a lot going on.

I'm tentatively planning on June 19th, having a Retreat at St Paul, for our members, that will include an opportunity for us to recruit for the next Fraternal Year and help us to transition from this group to the next group of Officer's. Final planning at May Officer's Meeting.

I truly believe we are in a good place with precautions to meet in person for our June 7th, Business meeting. Social Distancing and Masks will make this a workable situation. Based on the ages of many of our members and now the availability of the Vaccine we should be in a good place with proper care. Let's make the effort to normalization. If you have some real health issues, I understand.

Stay tuned for a group gathering to cook up some hamburgers and Hotdogs, any ideas are welcome. Thanks.

I want to thank everybody for their efforts to date. We need to look at ways we can recruit and continue our very generous contributions here at St Paul.

May God Bless the Knights of Columbus.
